

Event module

Menu

The event module is, with a small exception, identical to the course module. This link will take you to the course module page with detailed descriptions of the individual windows and fields: Course module

In the Event Module you can define no HCP limits in the tab PERSON GROUP. This information is not required for an event. The button Define HCP limits is missing in the event module.