Create a backup of the databases

With this option under End/Create backup of databases you can create backups of all databases or only certain databases.

This function is mainly required by the PC CADDIE support team.