Remote control carts

With this module, you have the option of activating your carts from the PC CADDIE cash register or via automated authorisation. Parameters such as running times and charging voltage are recorded so that PC CADDIE can automatically search for the optimum cart for your customers.

You can find more information here.