Tournament conclusion

With the World Handicap System, it is not important to close the tournament before the award ceremony, as no new HCP can be printed on the results list. However, it is important to close the tournament promptly so that the handicaps can be recalculated on the ÖGV server. You can read more here:

Closing the tournament