Tournament completion

With the World Handicap system, it is not important to close a competition before the award ceremony, as a new handicap cannot be printed on the results list. However, it is important to close it as soon as possible so that the handicaps can be recalculated on the ÖGV server. More information available here: Closing a competition.